Bloopers, Blunders and Blips:
My Computer Was Hijacked!!

Hello to fellow members, and please accept my sincerest apologies for getting this newsletter so gosh darned late. I've been having issues with my computer lately, and these issues have gotten in the way of getting the Manhattan Focus in on time. Just for the record, the operating system that I'm currently using is Windows XP, along with Norton Anti-virus software. When I ran Norton, it showed that everything was peachy; the fact was, it wasn't. Multiple Internet Explorer windows started popping up one after another, and I don't even use Internet Explorer!! I later installed and updated SpyBot Search and Destroy, and it showed that I had spyware on my machine. Just goes to show that nothing is foolproof... Anyhow, I hope that everyone has had, is having, and will have a happy holiday!
